A screenshot of a PDF signing application interface. The window title is "test-pdf-signed.pdf". The menu bar includes "Menu", "File", "test-pdf-signed.pdf", "+ Create", "All tools", "Edit", "Convert", "E-Sign". The toolbar includes "Find text or tools", "AI Assistant", and various document icons. A sidebar on the left shows a "Signed and all signatures are valid." message with a green checkmark icon and a "PDF" label. The main panel is titled "Signatures" and displays a single signature entry: "Rev. 1: Signed by [REDACTED]". Below it, a blue box highlights the status "Signature is valid: Source of Trust obtained from European Union Trusted Lists (EUTL). This is a Qualified Electronic Signature according to EU Regulation 910/2014". The signature details are partially visible, including names like "Hans-Joachim Schmid" and "Hans-Joachim Schmid" and a timestamp "2023-08-26 10:00:00 +0200".

Signed and all signatures are valid.

The word "sterker" is written in a large, bold, sans-serif font. The letters are filled with a photograph of a rural landscape. The foreground shows rolling green hills and fields. In the middle ground, there's a small cluster of buildings, possibly a farm or a small town. The background features a bright blue sky with a few wispy white clouds. The overall composition is a high-quality landscape photograph used as a background for the text.
